

PACIFIC COAST FOAM PROVIDES DECORATIVE LYKESTONE INTERIOR AND EXTERIOR foam architectural accents for new L'OPERA RESTAURANT AT THE SPECTRUM

SAN DIEGO — December 11, 2001 — Pacific Coast Foam has provided the decorative custom interior and exterior architectural accents for the Orange County's newest restaurant, L'Opera at the Spectrum, located at 45 Fortune Drive in Irvine, CA, according to Scott J. Buckley, vice president of sales and marketing for Pacific Coast Foam, San Diego's largest supplier and installer of expanded polystyrene (EPS) foam architectural shapes and accents.

Decorative custom exterior accents, made from Pacific Coast Foam's signature LykeStone Series, include an extravagant entrance pediment and columns featuring the "L'Opera" sign. Interior LykeStone accents include marble faux-finished columns in the restaurant's dining room, hallway and wine tasting room. Pacific Coast Foam, which manufactured the custom LykeStone columns and accents for L'Opera, worked closely with Magnum Builders, Inc. of Los Angeles and Gale A. Fields Studio of Architecture in Long Beach. L'Opera at the Spectrum is owned by Terry Antonelli and Enzo DeMura and features Northern Italian cuisine.

Pacific Coast Foam and PCF/Inside are located at 8585 Miramar Place, San Diego 92121. The telephone number is (858) 455-1274 or the company can be reached toll-free at 888-511-FOAM (3626).
