

THE PCF GROUP CONTRIBUTES EXTERIOR ARCHITECTURAL DETAILS FOR NEW STONE BREWING CO. BISTRO AND BEER GARDENS IN ESCONDIDO

SAN DIEGO — January 23, 2006 — The PCF Group has provided the exterior architectural foam details (see attached photo) for the new Stone Brewery World Bistro and Beer Gardens in Escondido, according to Scott Buckley, vice president of marketing for the PCF Group.

According to Buckley, PCF provided the lightweight cornice details around the perimeter of the new restaurant. Located at 1999 Citracado Parkway in Escondido, the $12 million Stone Brewing World Bistro & Beer Gardens totals 58,000 square feet, including a 9,500-square-foot restaurant, gift shop and visitor's center. The details were fabricated by PCF, and then installed by The Ghianni-LaRussa Group, the plaster contractor. The general contractor was Hamann Construction and the design architect was McArdle Associates.

Founded in 1996, the Stone Brewing Co. is one of the fastest growing breweries in the country. Additionally, Stone Brewing is one of the highest rated breweries in the world according to both RateBeer.com and BeerAdvocate.com. Stone Brewing Co. is currently open for tours and tastings every Friday from 3-6pm and Saturday from 11-3pm, at 155 Mata Way in San Marcos, CA. Stone Brewing will move in late 2005 to 1999 Citracado Parkway, Escondido, CA. For more information, go to www.stonebrew.com.
